Kristal,

Unfortunately, an Expedition won't hold up with a-arm suspension. Where these machine work is rough.

Hi Craig,

As we discussed, the units that you are looking for are too far away for me to have them transferred and picked up. I have attached the dealers that show the Skandics that you are interested in are in stock.

For models like these they should really be pre-ordered in February/March to guarantee the availability.

Thank You,
Doug Smith
